

COMP30022 Sprint 1 Checklist

Team Name: Red Bull (team 065)

Supervisor: Doc Wallace

Process

- Communication tool up to date? Yes \(Slack\). Please check Slack chat history for details.
- Team documents up to date, including meeting minutes, task assignments? Yes, meeting minutes is stored in “docs/Week 9/meeting minutes” in the repository, and task assignments is in Trello. Link to Trello: <https://trello.com/b/Dryvhdi/it-project>
- Please give a link to your repository. <https://github.com/dl-ghub/IT-Project-RBDB>
- Are all team members contributing as equally as feasible? Elaborate as needed. Yes, please refer to the Trello board for task allocation details
- Have you done a sprint retrospective? Yes, it is stored in the “docs/Week 9/Sprint 1 Retrospective Meeting.pdf” file in the repository

Artefacts

Have requirements been updated?

No

Have design artefacts been modified?

No

What tasks were completed in the sprint?

User story id 10, 11, 17, 18, 19, and some others are partially done

Do you have coding standards? If so, give link.

General Kotlin standards based on the links below:

<https://developer.android.com/kotlin/style-guide>

<https://kotlinlang.org/docs/coding-conventions.html>

Do you have a testing plan? If so, give link.

Yes, it is stored in the “docs/Week 9/RedBull-UnitTests.pdf” file in the repository

Do you have a deployment pipeline? If so, elaborate on your tool and status of deployment.

Our deployment method is to use the emulator in Android Studio as publishing the mobile app on Google Playstore will be a lengthy process